ANNUAL CHARLESTON "BLESSING OF THE FLEET" SCHEDULED FOR MEMORIAL DAY

On Memorial Day, activities in Charleston, Oregon will focus on the Annual Blessing of the Fleet and Memorial Service at the Charleston Fisherman's Memorial near the launch ramp at Charleston Marina. The blessing will be at 10:00 AM on Monday, May 26th.

The service will honor the more than 125 local men and women associated with the commercial fishing industry who have died since 1941. This year one name will be added to the "Lost At Sea" plaque; Andrew J. Hebert-Hopper. Three names will be added to the "In Memory" plaque; Vincent Murphy, Don "Rocky" Rockwood and Bob Worstenburg.

James Moore, a local commercial Salmon troller, will provide opening and closing remarks. Pastor Ross Wilbanks of the Charleston Community Church will deliver a memorial, and Tom Shine & Friends will perform on the bagpipes to open and close the blessing event. The U.S. Naval Sea Cadet Corps, Abraham Lincoln Division, will provide the color guard.

The Charleston Community Church Choir will perform "Love Lifted Me" and there will be solo performances by Jenny Blood singing "Till the Storm Passes By" and Nancy Joy Butler performing "Ship Ahoy." Additional music will be provided by The Young Bucs and Rick Morrison.

Following the blessing and memorial service, the Charleston Fishwives will host a coffee and cake reception at the Charleston Marina RV Park recreation room, 63402 Kingfisher Rd. near the Portside Restaurant.

A U.S. Coast Guard motor lifeboat from Lifeboat Station Charleston will load floral arrangements to take them to sea and lay on the water in a brief ceremony. The lifeboat will get underway immediately after the blessing and memorial service.

Floral arrangements or memorial wreaths are encouraged, but they must contain only biodegradable materials. Local floral businesses can readily accommodate requests for this type of arrangement.
