COOS HISTORICAL & MARITIME MUSEUM CELEBRATES OREGON'S DAY OF CULTURE

For one week only (Sept 26 through Oct. 3), the Coos Historical & Maritime Museum invites people to view a piece of Coos County history. We encourage people to view the object and then create a piece of art, poetry, or reminiscence inspired by this object. These creations can be brought to the Coos Historical & Maritime Museum before Oct. 5th where five will be selected for publication in The World Newspaper on October 8, Oregon's Day of Culture. All created works of art will be displayed at the museum from October 8 through October 31.

Also, the Coos Historical & Maritime Museum will offer FREE ADMISSION on Thursday, October 8, 2009 in honor of Oregon's Day of Culture.

The Oregon Cultural Trust urges Oregonians to Celebrate! Participate! and Give! to support Oregon Humanities, Arts, and Heritage Nonprofits. October is National Arts & Humanities Month and the 8th marks the anniversary of Oregon's unique cultural tax credit. The cultural tax credit allows cultural donors who give first to Coos Historical & Maritime Museum then to the Cultural Trust, to create the funding for cultural programs. Money donated to the Cultural Trust returns to the community in grants that benefit 1,200 arts, heritage and humanities nonprofits in every county, including the Coos Historical & Maritime Museum. The Trust created Oregon Day of Culture to celebrate all that culture brings us every day, in every community.

The Oregon Day of Culture website, www.oregondayofculture.org includes a searchable database of events happening all across Oregon in the week from October 1, and leading up to October 8. Oregon Day of Culture invites you to consider the every day value of culture in your life as you check out a book at the library, research your family history at the historical society, volunteer at your child's art class, listen to a cultural presentation or interview, practice an instrument, or attend a performance.

Activities like these - and much more - can be found at www.oregondayofculture.org. Join us in celebrating...and supporting!...the rich tapestry of heritage, humanities and arts that is Oregon culture, every day.

Seabreeze Harmony Announces Christmas Chorus Plans

Women who sing are invited to participate in Christmas chorus, a short term singing and performance opportunity with Sea Breeze Harmony Chorus beginning on September 28 and ending mid-December.

The Christmas Chorus will learn familiar Christmas songs in four part a cappella harmony during the first hour of regular chorus rehearsals, starting at 6:30 PM on Tuesday evenings at the First United Methodist Church of Coos Bay on Ocean Boulevard. The chorus will continue its regular practice until 9:00 PM and invites the Christmas chorus ladies to stay to learn more about barbershop harmony and just have fun.

There is no charge for the program and costuming, which consists of colorful holiday sweat-shirts and black slacks. The CC will perform with Sea Breeze at local holiday events.

For additional information please call Elaine at 759-2339. or Lois-Elaine at 267-3106.

"Guard with jealous attention the public liberty. Suspect everyone who approaches that jewel. Unfortunately, nothing will preserve it but downright force. Whenever you give up that force, you are ruined....The great object is that every man be armed....Everyone who is able may have a gun."
