COLGATE COUNTRY SHOWDOWN CONTINUES

The second of two qualifying rounds for the Colgate Country Showdown took place Thursday, May 28 at the Egyptian Theater in Coos Bay. Thirteen artists competed in the country music event with eight of them advancing to the preliminary round on June 11.

The Colgate Country Showdown is a competition to discover new talent in the field of country music. It is run by radio stations nationwide including local stations KSHR (K-Shore) and KBDN, both part of the BiCoastal Media group of stations.

A panel of judges rates contestants based on marketability, vocal ability, originality, stage presence, talent and, if applicable, song-writing.

The eight remaining contestants who will perform in the June 11 preliminary round are: Trevor Berrian; Kelly Coolen; Mike Jacobson, Micah Langley; Talitha McClary; Lexi Monreal; Brady James Rich and Mikhalah Smith. The event will be held 7:00 PM at the Egyptian Theater. Admission is $5.00.

The local finals will be held July 28 through August 1 at the Coos County Fair where two local winners, one for each radio station, will ultimately be selected to advance to the state finals.

The state finals will be held on September 25 and the regional finals will be on October 17. Both events will be at the Mill Casino-Hotel in North Bend. Both events will begin at 7:00 PM with a $5.00 admission.
