HOW THEY VOTED

This feature will appear in Koos News on a regular basis whenever votes take place in the U.S. Senate or House of Representatives. This is in keeping with our policy of holding our elected officials accountable for what they do rather than what they say.

RECENT VOTES IN THE U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES:

*Combustible Dust Explosion and Fire Prevention Act
 Vote Passed
 (247-165, 19 Not Voting)
 The House voted to require the Department of Labor to issue interim and final occupational safety and health standards regarding worker exposure to combustible dust.
 Rep. Peter DeFazio voted YES

*Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act of 2008
 Vote Passed
 (414-1, 16 Not Voting)

The House agreed to this measure that would prohibit employers and health insurance issuers from discriminating against individuals on the basis of their genetic information.
 Rep. Peter DeFazio voted YES

*Ensuring Continued Access to Student Loans Act
 Vote Passed
 (388-21, 22 Not Voting)

The House agreed with the Senate's amendments to this bill intended to ensure the availability of low interest student loans.
