IS YOUR DOG A GOOD CITIZEN?

The Furry Friends Therapy Dogs, Inc. organization is offering the "CANINE GOOD CITIZEN" (CGC) test on Saturday, November 7th, 2009 from 11:30 to 1:30 at the Coos Bay City Hall, 500 Central Ave., Coos Bay. It will be either in the parking lot under City Hall or in front of the building, depending on the weather. The test is open to the public including "drop-ins". In addition, mixed breed dogs as well as purebreds are most welcome.

This American Kennel Club (AKC) sponsored test is designed to ensure that your canine companion is well behaved around people and other dogs, at home and in public. The CGC test uses a series of basic obedience exercises to evaluate the dog's ability to behave in an acceptable manner in public. Included among the exercises is sitting/down on command, walking through a small crowd with mild distractions and coming when called.

The Canine Good Citizen award is one of the first AKC certificates your dog can obtain and will provide an excellent foundation for all other training. The CGC test is endorsed by state legislatures, residential communities and veterinarians. Some insurance companies rely on the CGC test for coverage of certain dog breeds. Also this test is considered the minimum qualification for therapy and service dog work. Upon completion of the test, you will receive a summary sheet with the results. A certificate and CGC patch is also available, thus assuring your canine citizen will be registered with the AKC.

An entry fee of $10.00 is required. Please bring a leash and a buckle or slip collar. (NO prong collars, head halters, harnesses or food treats are allowed during the test). Also bring a positive attitude and lots of praise for your canine companion. For more information, contact Ramona 269-2876 or Shirley 266-7440.
